

Top 5 Ways To Get Kids To Eat More Vegetables

Cut vegetables of different colors into different shapes and let kids play a bit. Let them make some fun artwork with their vegetables. Then provide some different dips for them to taste their artwork. Infuse a little fun time with veggies!

Have your children participate in some of the decisions around vegetables. Let them choose which vegetable to include at mealtime and discuss what are the different ways to add that vegetable to the meal. Children become more interested when they have taken part in the decision making.

Be creative and add more finely chopped vegetables to soups, casseroles and sauces. You can even add it to hamburger patties. It may sound a little sneaky but sometimes you have to help children see how delicious vegetables are in different foods.

Have your child plant a vegetable and take care of it. Treat it like a very special "pet" that needs time, attention and care. Kids will be more interested in trying a vegetable that they have nurtured and helped harvest.

Many vegetables can be eaten raw. Kids are funny about smells and texture. See what type of vegetables appeals most: soft, crunchy, smooth? Have a tasting test game with the whole family.
